

Research Projects of the Hypertension Research Center

Ongoing National Projects:

1. Establishment of a registry and follow-up system for patients with hypertension in Isfahan to integrate data
2. Establishment of a cohort study to assess the incidence of cardiovascular events in hypertensive patients referring to the Hypertension Clinic of the Isfahan Cardiovascular Research Institute
3. Evaluation of the predictive power of artificial intelligence for recurrent acute coronary syndrome events: Validation using longitudinal clinical data